O R D E R:

In the reference 2nd read above the Director General of Prisons and correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, has stated that the posts of Deputy Jailors (Men) meant for promotion from the category of Chief Head Warders are lying vacant for a long time due to non-availability of qualified Chief Head Warders. Most of the Chief Head Warders are not qualified in the required departmental tests even after completion of more than 25 years of service, resulting into accumulation of vacancies meant for them, due to which this Department is unable to fill up the quota of 25% of posts of Deputy Jailors by promotion from Chief Head Warders. This is also leading to denial of promotional chances to the feeder category staff i.e., Head Warders and Warders. The large number of vacancies of Deputy Jailors is also causing much inconvenience to the prison administration particularly to Sub Jail administration. Furthermore, most of the Chief Head Warders even after completion of more than 30 years of service are retiring as Chief Head Warders only due to the reason that they could not pass the departmental tests before end of their service. This is creating a lot of despair and discontentment among them.

2. The Director General of Prisons and correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, has therefore requested the Government for onetime exemption for relaxation of Rule-5 of A.P Jail Subordinate Service Rules, issued in G.O.Ms.No.514, dt. 23.11.1993 for filling up of the vacancies of Deputy Jailors (Men) who have not passed the Departmental Tests, subject to condition that they should pass the Departmental Tests Paper-I, II, III & IV and A/Cs Test for S.O Part-1, during their period of probation in the category of Deputy Jailor (Men), in the interest of administration and for smooth functioning of Prison administration.

3. Government, after careful examination of the matter, decided and accordingly hereby relax the conditions contained in Annexure to Rule -5 under Class –A (1) (a) of Special Rules in A.P. Jail sub-ordinate Service Rules issued in G.O. Ms. No: 514 Home (Prisons A) Department, Dated: 23.11.1993 duly exempting the individuals from passing Departmental Tests prescribed therein, as one time measure for promotion as Deputy Jailor (Men) from the category of Chief Head Warders (Men) for the panel year 2020-2021, in the interest of administration and for smooth functioning of Prison administration.

(P.T.O)

4. The Director General of Prisons and Correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada, shall take further necessary action accordingly, in the matter.
